LOCATION

The historic market town of Liskeard is situated in the south-east of Cornwall, having a resident population of circa 9,000 persons, and is the principal retailing and commercial centre for this area of the county. Situated at the head of the Looe Valley, the town is in close proximity to the coastal settlements of Fowey (20 miles), Polperro (13½ miles) and Looe (9 miles), and has good transport links to Plymouth (19 miles), Bodmin (13 miles) and Truro (36 miles).

The property is situated on the main thoroughfare of the town, directly opposite the main town Post Office and in close proximity to Go Mobile, Santander and the Co-Op. To the rear of the site is access to Westbourne Long Stay Car Park (230 spaces), one of the main car parks for the town.

DESCRIPTION

A substantial mid-terrace, Grade II Listed banking hall built circa 1867 formerly occupied until recently by Lloyds Bank plc. Offers 450.20 sq m (4,846 sq ft) of accommodation arranged over two floor levels.

The main ground floor former banking hall, is accessed directly from Fore Street via steps/disabled ramp and provides a large open-plan office/sales area, loosely sub-divided by internal partitioning leading through to individual office rooms, stores and ancillary areas at the rear. A link corridor to the rear provides further access to offices and stores at ground and part-first floor levels.

The main first floor, accessed separately off the front elevation, incorporates an entrance foyer, substantial gallery style stairs leading to three front-facing large offices, separate toilet and a rear office, with a number of additional offices located towards the rear of the building. A secondary staircase accesses the ground floor off the rear wing.

The property is available with full vacant possession. Potential uses include restaurant, offices and retail, with the possibility of residential use, subject to planning consents.

ANTI-MONEY LAUNDERING REGULATIONS

It is a legal requirement that we receive verified identification from all buyers before a sale can be formally instructed. Your cooperation on this matter is much appreciated to ensure there is no unnecessary delay in conducting a sale. We will inform you of the process once your offer has been accepted.

SBC Property is the trading name of Scott Burrigge Commercial LLP for themselves and for the vendors of this property whose agents they give notice that: (1) These particulars do not constitute any part of an offer or a contract. (2) All statements contained in these particulars as to this property are made without responsibility on the part of Scott Burrigge Commercial LLP, or the vendor. (3) None of the statements contained in these particulars as to this property are to be relied on as statements or representations of fact. (4) Any intending purchaser must satisfy himself by inspection or otherwise as to the correctness of each of the statements contained in these particulars. (5) The vendor does not make or give Scott Burrigge Commercial LLP nor any person in their employment any authority to make or give any representation or warranty whatever in relation to this property. You are recommended to contact us before visiting the property even for an information viewing, we can then confirm whether or not it is still available. It is emphasised that in these Particulars of Sale items of furniture, fixtures, fittings and equipment are mentioned for descriptive purposes only and do not necessarily form part of the sale.

PROOF OF FUNDING

Prior to agreeing a sale, our clients may require us to obtain a proof of your financial ability to purchase. Again, we ask for your cooperation on this matter to avoid any unnecessary delays and will inform you of what we require prior to agreeing a sale.
